Social Circles

Make connections in Silver Society through adult education

Project overview

The partners are progressing with the development of the educators' toolkit and community coaching program. The CCP will be available online via MOOC, available as a printable PDF manual, and offered as an online flipbook. It will be available in all partner languages.

Project goals

Social Circles aims to combat loneliness in older adults by using adult education as a tool.

Adult education provides a multifaceted approach that offers social interaction, purpose and continuous learning. It strives to overcome barriers to adult education participation by providing support through a tailored set of educational resources.

Overall, the project strives to build inclusive learning environments, increase adult education, and encourage community engagement among older adults.
